

Challenging Censorship in Scottish Libraries

Towards a Collaborative Solution

Event Guide:

Research by the University of Strathclyde has highlighted issues around censorship in public and school libraries in Scotland that affect provision of both paper and digital services. Evidence suggests that an over-riding factor is the lack of a coordinated national policy approach to censorship issues in libraries.

This event will present the evidence, consider professional ethical codes and practitioner experiences, and aims to propose workable solutions to take forward collaboratively after the session.

Venue & Registration:

Tuesday 30th April 2013
5.30 – 8.30pm
Strathclyde Institute of Pharmacy and
Biomedical Sciences, Hamnett Wing, HW112-114
University of Strathclyde, Glasgow (map)

To register and for more information please go to:
www.engage.strath.ac.uk/event/50

Audience:

- Library and information professionals
- Authors
- Publishing professionals
- Students and researchers in library and information science/freedom of expression

Benefits of attending:

- Open a debate in the sector on this hot topic
- Build relationships with University of Strathclyde researchers
- Build relationships with future funding partners
- Promote collaboration between practitioners
- Promote freedom of expression

Event Organisers:

David McMenemy
d.mcmenemy@strath.ac.uk
+44 (0)141 548 3045

This event is part of Engage with Strathclyde, a week of events promoting the University of Strathclyde's external partnerships that enhance our research and teaching.