

The David Livingstone Legacy

International Development Agenda with 21st Century Technology

Barony Hall, High St, Glasgow

Thursday 2nd May 2013

During the coffee break, videos of the international development projects will be shown on the large screen.

Programme

Time
1.30 – 2.00	Registration and exhibition viewing
2.00 – 2.15	Opening – the David Livingstone Legacy in the 21st Century	Principal, Professor Sir Jim McDonald
2.15 -2.30	Scottish Government support for International Development	Humza Yousaf, Minister for External Affairs and International Development
2.30-2.45	NGO collaboration with the University of Strathclyde	Rebecca Adams, Challenges Worldwide
2.45 – 3.15	Tea / Coffee break and exhibition viewing	Pre-recorded video messages from Malawi
3.15 -3.30	Primary Education Capacity Building in Malawi	Dr. Amanda Corrigan, School of Education
3.30-3.45	Strathclyde International Development – student-run volunteering activities	Jill Burdett, DFID and Strathclyde Alumnus
3.45-4.00	Water Security and Climate Change	Dr Francesco Sindico, The Law School

Exhibition stands:

- David Livingstone 200 – 10 banners depicting the story of our famous alumnus.
- Energy for Development – Solar energy Vertically Integrated Project in Gambia
- Capacity Building for Justice – the Law School and School of Journalism in Malawi
- Water for Health – the Scotland Chikhwawa Health Initiative and Climate Justice Water project in Malawi
- Architecture for Development – Architectural projects in Rwanda and Senegal
- Engineers without Borders – international student society
- Strathclyde International Development – student volunteering organisation (Projects in Uganda, Malawi, South Africa, Ghana and Nepal)
- Students for Malawi – student volunteering organisation
- Campaign for Strathclyde – Alumni support for International Development
- Malawi Millennium Project – supporting small scale projects and scholarships.