Cultural Heritage: Building Partnerships with Strathclyde
Technology and Innovation Centre (room 2, level 3)

Tuesday 1 May 2018

Programme

- 12.30 – 1.00: Registration/lunch (level 3 foyer)

- 1.00 – 1.15: Introductions from Dr Sarah Edwards (organiser) and Dr Churnjeet Mahn (sub-theme co-ordinator, 'Society and Policy'): past and upcoming opportunities at Strathclyde.

- 1.15: Pecha Kucha presentations and questions/discussion

- Alison Taylor (Deputy Head of Development, Glasgow Life), 'Glasgow Life: Culture in the City'.

- Dr Matthew Alexander (Marketing, University of Strathclyde), 'Delivering the Past: opportunities and challenges in ancestral tourism'.

- Dr Martin Halvey (Computer and Information Science, University of Strathclyde), 'Multimodal Information Interaction'.

- Amina Shah (Director of Programmes, Scottish Book Trust) and Marc Lambert (CEO, Scottish Book Trust), 'Scottish Book Trust: Inspiring Readers and Writers'.

- Gillian Daly (Knowledge Exchange Partnerships Manager, Scottish Graduate School for Arts and Humanities; until recently, Head of Policy and Projects, Scottish Library and Information Council),'Partnership Perspectives'.

- 2.30: Coffee break

- 2.45: Pecha Kucha presentations and questions/discussion

- Wendy Kirk (Librarian, Glasgow Women's Library), 'A world of women's words: reading aloud at GWL's Story Cafe'.

- Rachel Thain-Gray (Project Co-ordinator, Glasgow Women's Library), 'Equality in Progress: intersectional feminism, participatory research and museums'.

- Dr Saskia Vermeylen (Law, University of Strathclyde), 'Uncanny Lore: Tangible and Intangible Cultural Heritage as a Source of Living Laws'.

- Dr Lorraine Gibson (Chemistry, University of Strathclyde), 'Heritage Smells: Unlocking Historical Secrets'.

- Dr Daisy Abbott (Researcher Developer, Glasgow School of Art), 'Digital Cultural Heritage at the Glasgow School of Art'.

- Networking session/summary until 4.00