

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Postgraduate Research Day

Research

Event Guide:

This event will showcase some of the very best work that postgraduate research students are undertaking in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. The event will run as a poster competition involving students presenting and talking about their work to an invited audience from both inside and outside the University. The Chair of the judging panel is Prof Alan Miller (Scottish Human Rights Commission), alongside post graduate research co-ordinators and senior staff in the faculty.

Prizes will be presented to winning entrants by Professor Miller before the event closes at 1pm.

Venue & Registration:

Tuesday 30th April 2013
8.30am – 1.00pm
Graham Hills Building, Level 5,
University of Strathclyde, Glasgow (map)

To register and for more information please go to:
www.engage.strath.ac.uk/event/21

Audience:

- Staff and students from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
- Staff and students from other faculties across the University of Strathclyde

- This event will be of interest to key stakeholders from across the Scottish public, private and voluntary sectors including: governmental and local authorities; private sector companies involved in social research and policy-making; volunteer organisations, in particular those with a focus on matters of equality, health, disability, human rights and other social policy areas such as education and housing.

Benefits of attending:

- Showcase of the best research and knowledge exchange the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
- Find out about how engaging with the University of Strathclyde's knowledge exchange and research activities can benefit your organisation
- Network with staff and students as well as representatives from external organisations
- Find out about the University of Strathclyde's Researcher Development Programme and how this develops early career researchers for the future

Event Organisers:

Dr Colin Clark, Associate Dean,
HASS Graduate School
c.r.clark@strath.ac.uk +44 (0)141 444 8400

This event is part of Engage with Strathclyde, a week of events promoting the University of Strathclyde's external partnerships that enhance our research and teaching.