

CENTRE FOR LANGUAGES
LINGUISTICS &
AREA STUDIES

Language Partnerships Across Sectors

Event Guide:

This seminar and discussion workshop will bring together stakeholders in language education from universities across Scotland. Presentations of existing best practice in cross-sector collaboration between schools and universities will be followed by a discussion on how this partnership working could be enhanced to support language learning in schools. There will also be an opportunity to view some of the project work from this year's intake of Foreign Language Assistants in Scottish schools. This event is a collaborative venture between Scotland's National Centre for Languages (SCILT) and the Centre for Languages, Linguistics and Area Studies (LLAS).

Venue & Registration:

Wednesday 1st May 2013
9.30am - 3.00pm (programme starts at 10.00)
Graham Hills Building, Room 5.15, Level 5 (map)
Lunch and refreshments included

To register please go to www.engage.strath.ac.uk/event/31

Audience:

- Programme designers of undergraduate language courses
- Language professionals in universities

Benefits of attending:

- Find out about existing best practice in partnership initiatives between universities and schools, and consider how these could be enhanced to support language learning across Scotland
- Opportunity to feed into universities' departmental ideas and plans in support of language learning
- Expand your network of professional stakeholders interested in cross-sector initiatives
- View the innovative ways in which current Language Assistants in Scotland have engaged with their pupils at primary and secondary school level

Event Organisers:

Hannah Doughty, SCILT
hannah.doughty@strath.ac.uk

Angela Gallagher-Brett
A.Gallagher-Brett@soton.ac.uk

This event is part of Engage with Strathclyde, a week of events promoting the University of Strathclyde's external partnerships that enhance our research and teaching.