

How to Teach EU Law in Scottish Law Schools after Brexit

Tuesday 2nd May 2017

Strathclyde Business School, 199 Cathedral Street, Glasgow

Organisers: Nicole Busby and Rebecca Zahn in collaboration with the Scottish Universities Legal Network on Europe (SULNE)

- |                      |  |
|----------------------|--|
| 9.30 – 10.00  | Registration – reception area, Strathclyde Business SchoolRefreshments and Event – Cathedral Wing, Level 5 (CW5.07)  |
| 10.00 – 10.15 | Welcome and introductionsProf N. Busby and Dr R. Zahn, University of Strathclyde   |
| 10.15 – 11.15 | Presentation by and discussions with representatives of the Law Society of Scotland, the Faculty of Advocates and practitioners on the future of teaching EU law and curriculum reform after Brexit.Chair: Aileen McHarg |
| 11.15 – 11.30 | Coffee break  |
| 11.30 – 12.30 | Roundtable discussion with academics and students on the future of teaching EU law and curriculum reform of the Scots law LL.B after BrexitChair: Sylvie da Lomba  |
| 12.30 – 14.00 | Lunch and presentations by publishers (CUP, OUP)  |
| 14.00 – 15.45 | Workshop: ‘How to teach EU law with multimedia resources’Facilitated by A. Salamone, University of Edinburgh   |
| 15.45 – 16.00 | Closing and future projects   |