

Public Mental Health: Global Perspectives

Lee Knifton & Neil Quinn (Editors)

Event Guide:

This event is the launch of Public Mental Health: Global Perspectives (McGraw-Hill). Editors Lee Knifton and Neil Quinn invite you to join them to hear a short presentation followed by an open debate involving some of the UK-based contributors to the book.

Mental health is a fundamental public health priority, and this stimulating and comprehensive book brings together all of the key issues to offer an overview for students and practitioners alike. Following the launch you will have the opportunity to network with others and buy your own copy of the book.

Venue & Registration:

Thursday 2nd May 2013
Registration and lunch 12.00pm
Event 12.30-13.30pm
Strathclyde Institute of Pharmacy and Biomedical Sciences (SIPBS), Hamnett Wing, Room 111-114 (map)

To register and for more information please go to:
www.engage.strath.ac.uk/event/57

You then have the opportunity to attend one of the two following events showcasing our work in the mental health sector:

- Reporting Mental Health and Suicide by the Media
- Strathclyde Engages with the NHS: Challenges and Opportunities in Mental Health Research

Audience:

- Academics & researchers with an interest in mental health in social science & education
- Professionals in the fields of psychology, social work and social sciences
- NHS, council workers, community groups, partners & associates
- Members of the Faculty of Public Health
- Members of the Royal College of Psychiatrists

Benefits of attending:

- Meet the editors and some of the chapter contributors at the book launch
- Network with others in related fields
- Stay on to attend one of the events following the launch

Event Organisers:

Lee Knifton lee.knifton@strath.ac.uk
+ 44 (0)751 5890744

Neil Quinn neil.quinn@strath.ac.uk
+44 (0)141 444 8652

This event is part of Engage with Strathclyde, a week of events promoting the University of Strathclyde's external partnerships that enhance our research and teaching.